ACTIVITY REPORT

1. Name of Activity: Sphurti (Virtual Sports Competition)

Date / Period: 13th Oct to 19th Oct 2020

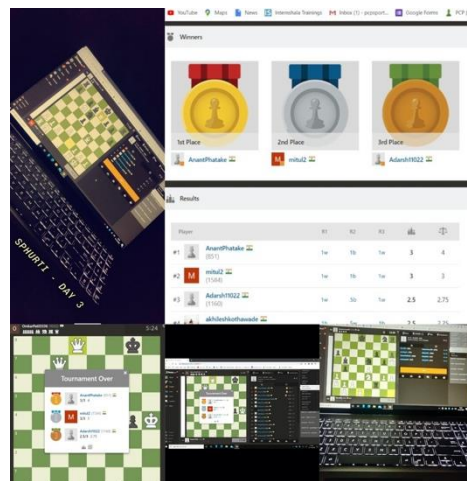

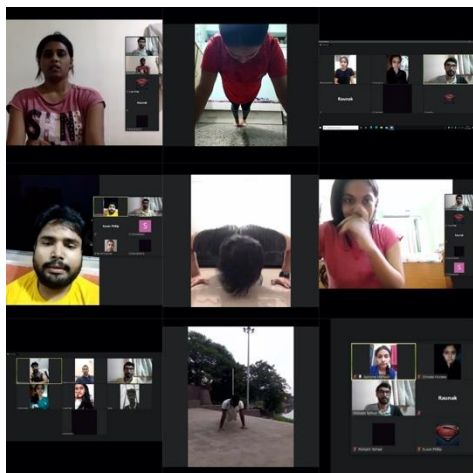

No. of Participants: 80+

Class: B. Pharmacy, PharmD, M. Pharm

SUMMARY:

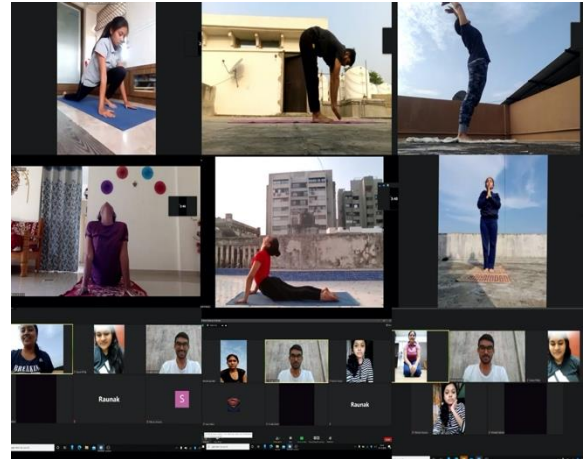

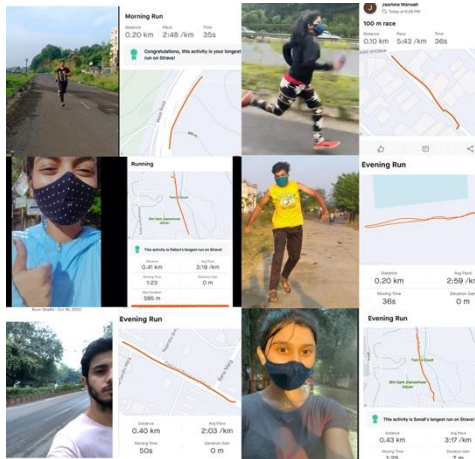

Sphurti was the one-of-its-kind virtual sports summit which was brainchild of the Sports Committee of Poona College of pharmacy to cater the enthusiasm of the fellow PCPians and was duly supervised by Dr. Nilesh Deshmukh, who with due enthusiasm agreed to the same, and extending support in all possible ways, big and small. The virtual sports tournament was organized with the intent to look after the health and fitness of the current PCPians and to-be Pharmacists, as they have to care about their mental and physical well-being amid this pandemic. This tournament included numerous sports including Fitness, Chess, Running, Yoga and Cycling, spanning over a week commencing 13th Oct to 19th Oct 2020, to provide a 360-degree round health of the students. There was no entry fee to ensure maximum participation in the best interest of everyone.

Fitness: The fitness competition included the boys and girls on consecutive days, 13th and 14th October, between 5:00 PM to 6:30 PM, on a zoom call, where all the students were asked to wait in the lobby with just one participant at a time, where they were assigned different exercises, and were ranked on the basis of the number and correctness of the exercise. All the exercises were done keeping in mind the current protection norms.

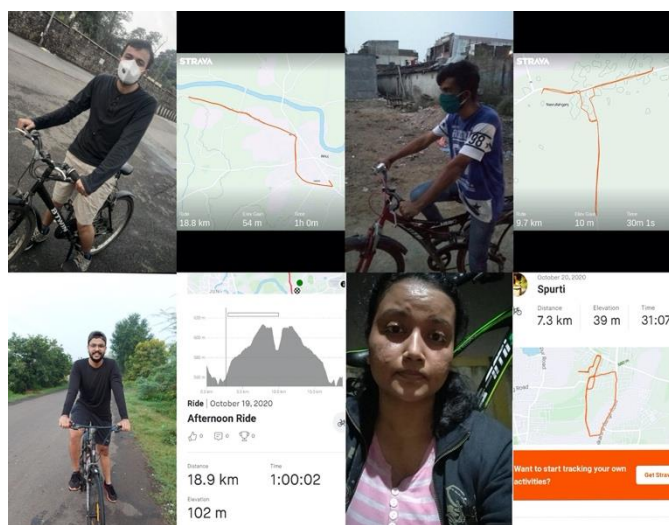

Chess: The chess tournament was conducted as a prologue for the full-fledged chess tournament the following week, it was hosted in the interest of all the chess enthusiasts by purchasing a premium account on chess.com, which is the premier software for hosting online chess tournaments. The tournament commenced at 6:00 PM sharp on 15th October, including 3 rounds, each of 15 min, which helped scrutinize the participants for the winner pageant. Post the consecutive rounds the winners were straightaway announced by the computer.

Running: The running was included in this keeping in mind the athletes of PCP, and all the norms for the safety of the students were followed before they commenced with the running. The competition included patches of 100m, 200m and 400m, which were held on consecutive days of 16th and 17th October, in slots, wherein the students had to download and use the Strava app, which would help calculate the distance and pace of the contenders, and they had to share a screenshot of the same before commencing and post-completion of the race, which had to be furnished within the stipulated timings.

Yoga: Mindfulness and mental well-being is also of paramount importance, especially in such trying times. The yoga competition was initiated with the same intent, over a zoom call on the 18th October at 8:00 AM sharp, as a salutation to the Sun God. All the Government norms were practiced before commencing the same, with utmost precautions following the COVID-19 protocols. All the participants were asked to perform the yoga exercise and complete within the stipulated time which would help yield the results and the winner tag.

Cycling: The cycling involved leveraging the Strava app which would be furnished as a proof within the stipulated time of 30 mins in either the morning or evening slots which had to be allotted beforehand. The cycling was conducted with utmost precautions following the COVID-19 protocols. The furnished proof would help calculate the time elapsed and the pace of the participants, which would help determine ordaining the winner tag.

The entire events were completed with utmost precautions, and also received a humongous response from both the faculty members and the students alike. This has certainly propelled both the students to participate in the much-awaited sports competitions which otherwise, would have been missed amid the pandemic.

2. Name of Activity: Virtual Chess Tournament.

Date / Period: 25th October 2020, Commencing 6:00 PM.

No. of Participants: 50+

Class: Open for all colleges

SUMMARY:

The Virtual chess tournament was a sequel of the chess tournament held as a part of the Sphurti competitions. This one-of-its-kind virtual tournament was organized by the Sports Secretaries of Poona College of Pharmacy, under the supervision and guidance of Dr. Nilesh Deshmukh, who helped pave the way for organizing such an inter-collegiate competition, where students from across India participated to kindle their love for chess. The competition commenced on 6:00PM sharp on the 25th of October 2020, and was held on chess.com, which included 5 rounds of 12 minutes each, which would scrutinize the contenders for the winner tag. The registrations were announced a week ago where the contenders registered and created their ID on the platform and eagerly waited for the lock to tick 6:00PM. Post the tournament, the computer software would announce the winners and the ranking system, which helped declare the winners, which was later announced on the club. It was indeed a really great competition as there was intense competition from contenders across the country to secure their pageants in the competition.
